Colorado State student-athletes realize the impact they have on others around them, even off the court. That's why each volleyball player participates in some form of volunteer service, ranging from working a youth camp to reading to elementary students. In 2013, recent graduate Michelle Smith even created Rams Care, a community outreach initiative intended to bring every CSU student-athlete together to help the local homeless. After collecting monetary donations at several athletic events, the money was used to buy needed supplies and assemble care packages for members of the homeless community. The event raised more than $3,600.

- MBA from Texas

Personal

- Wife: Jennie; Children: Emma and Will
- Hometown: Battle Creek, Mich.
- Three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan
- Deputy A.D. at Texas Tech 2011-15
- Senior Associate A.D. at Michigan, Oklahoma, Washington State and Texas

Joe Parker, a proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, was hired as athletics director at Colorado State University by President Tony Frank on March 17, 2015. Parker, who had been the deputy athletics director at Texas Tech of the Big 12 Conference since April 2011, also has served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan (Big 10), the University of Oklahoma (Big 12), Washington State University (Pac-12) and the University of Texas (Big 12).

In just his first year in Fort Collins, Parker oversaw tremendous success by the Rams' athletics programs in competition, and continued growth of Colorado State Athletics. CSU's volleyball and women's basketball programs both went undefeated in their 18 Mountain West contests during the 2015-16 academic year, making CSU just the fourth schools in NCAA history to have dual undefeated conference marks. The CSU football team qualified for its third consecutive bowl game in 2015, and the Rams have claimed six total MW championships since Parker's hire.

In Parker's tenure he also has signed an extension of Colorado State's multi-year agreement with Under Armour to be its official apparel provider through 2021, as well an enhanced, long-term multimedia rights partnership with Learfield, both of which position Colorado State for continued growth in its profile and stature nationally. Parker also continues to guide the athletics department through the construction of CSU's new 41,000-capacity on-campus stadium set to open to in 2017.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker has been involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity issues at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and recent launch of a current $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70-percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Joe Parker was introduced as the director of athletics at Colorado State on March 17, 2015.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an MBA from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jennie, have two children, Emma and Will.

Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Athletics Director
"I am very excited for Joe, Jennie, Will and Emma on their new opportunity at Colorado State University. Joe is one of the most talented and thoughtful administrators in the nation, and I could not be more appreciative of his friendship, hard work, and dedication to Texas Tech athletics over the past four years. His day-to-day leadership has been an instrumental part of our progress and Texas Tech athletics is better today because of the important role he has played within our department. President Frank and Colorado State have made a tremendous hire and one that will provide strong leadership for their athletics department. I know the CSU coaches, athletics department staff and community will enjoy getting to know Joe Parker and his wonderful family."

Kliff Kingsbury, Head Football Coach, Texas Tech
"Joe Parker is one of the most impressive individuals I have ever had the privilege of working with. His passion for the well-being of the student-athlete is unparalleled. Colorado State has hired an incredible athletics director and an even better man. He will be sincerely missed here at Texas Tech, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech retired Women's Basketball coach and 1993 National Champion in WBB
"All of us at Texas Tech will hate to lose Joe Parker, but we couldn't be more excited for him and this new opportunity. Joe is a man of solutions. He is thoughtful, fair and a good listener and that approach allows him to discover solutions. Joe will do a great job as the athletics director at Colorado State."

Jeff Long, Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, University of Arkansas
"Joe Parker is an outstanding athletics administrator. He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma
"I've had the great fortune to have first-hand experience working with Joe Parker as part of our athletic program here at Oklahoma and closely following his continued growth in our industry. From his background as a student-athlete to his accomplishments as an administrator, it's really exciting to see a real life example of preparation meeting opportunity. This is a true success story. Colorado State University has hired a dynamic leader with great skills and impeccable integrity who will build great relationships with stakeholders and collectively create a wonderful environment for student-athlete achievement in the classroom and their athletic endeavors. We are grateful for all of Joe's contributions to Oklahoma and happy for him, Jennie, and their entire family. We're confident they will be enthusiastically welcomed and embraced just as they were here. Congratulations to the entire Ram Nation!

Christine Plonsky, Women's AD/Exec. Sr. Associate A.D., University of Texas
"Colorado State University and college athletics enjoy a positive day as Joe Parker assumes A.D. responsibilities. Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him. Colorado State is a perfect community for Joe, Jennie and their family. He will be a giving, admired and connected leader for Rams athletics and the University. Our A.D. group in NCAA Division I is thrilled that Joe has received this opportunity."

Bill Martin, former AD, University of Michigan
"Joe Parker is an excellent choice to be the new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics for Colorado State. He has an appreciation, a sensitivity and an understanding of intercollegiate athletics through his career as a student-athlete swimming for the University of Michigan, and then as an athletic administrator. Joe played a key role in the successful renovation of Michigan Stadium, overseeing the design and marketing of all the premium seating. His integrity, his knowledge, his passion, his leadership skills and his personality combined to make him an effective team leader. Joe was the 'go-to' individual for so many on our staff and for me personally; he was a trusted confidante who helped lead our department in every role he was asked to take on."

Chris Del Conte, athletics director, TCU
"CSU today hired the perfect person to lead this program. Joe has had many opportunities to be an athletic director. I can't think of anyone more prepared than Joe for this opportunity. During his stops at Washington State, Texas, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, he has not only led as a visionary for building facilities but acquired the knowledge necessary to lead this program in today's environment."

DeLoss Dodds, retired athletic director, University of Texas
"Joe did a terrific job at the University of Texas. He is bright, he is people-friendly. He's got great experience at several different places, and is knowledgeable about the business. Joe has a great family and a terrific wife. CSU is very fortunate to have him as part of their community."

M. Duane Nellis, President, Texas Tech University
"Over the last two years I've known Joe Parker, his impact on the daily operations of the athletics department has been impressive. Upon meeting him it was obvious he would make this transition one day. Our loss is truly Colorado State's gain."

TOM HILBERT

Head Coach | 20th Season at CSU | Oklahoma, '84

The Colorado State women's volleyball program has become synonymous with consistent winning under the guidance and tutelage of Head Coach Tom Hilbert, who completed his 19th season with the Rams and his 27th overall as a collegiate head coach in 2015.

With nine Mountain West Coach of the Year awards to his credit in the league's 17-year history, it is clear why Hilbert's program has risen to the top of the league and has become a stalwart on the national stage as a perennial top-25 team.

Under Hilbert, who was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame as the Hall of Honor recipient in 2006, the Rams have developed into one of the top programs in the nation, qualifying for the NCAA tournament all 19 seasons. Overall, CSU has played in 21 consecutive tournaments dating back to 1995, which ranks seventh nationally. The stretch also includes six Regional Semifinals appearances (Sweet 16) and 13 first-round victories.

Through the 2015 campaign, Hilbert owns a career record of 662-185 (.782), including a 488-113 (.812) mark during his tenure at CSU. After leading the Rams to an unblemished 18-0 league mark in 2015, Hilbert boasts a 257-37 overall record in conference play since coming to Fort Collins in 1997.

Entering 2015, Hilbert ranked 10th among active Division I head coaches (14th all-time) for winning percentage (.778), and 17th for total wins (636). Of those ranked in the top 20 for wins, Hilbert had coached the fewest total matches, owning a career record of 636-181. With the Rams' win vs. Nevada on Nov. 9, 2013, Hilbert became just the 10th coach in NCAA Division I women's volleyball history to record at least 600 victories and a career winning percentage above .770.

On Nov. 4, 2010, he became the winningest coach in any sport in CSU history, earning a victory over UNLV, his 353rd in Fort Collins. The win surpassed former men's basketball coach Jim Williams' mark of 352 victories. A year prior, Hilbert eclipsed the 500-win mark for his career. At the time, he was one of just two active coaches with more than 500 victories and fewer than 22 years of head coaching experience. Also in 2009, the veteran coach earned his 300th career win at CSU, moving ahead of his predecessor, Rich Feller, who won 299 matches from 1983-96.

The Rams won a seventh consecutive Mountain West championship in 2015, also earning regular-season titles in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. CSU is the only school in the NCAA to win its conference each of the past seven seasons. In all, Hilbert has orchestrated 13 regular-season MW titles in 17 years, also adding five conference tournament championships in nine opportunities. The 18 total titles are more than all other MW teams -- past and present -- combined. CSU is 233-33 in MW action under Hilbert, never finishing lower than third. What's more, in 1998, CSU's final season in the WAC, the Rams won the Mountain Division. Of those who have played four seasons for the Rams under Hilbert, each has won at least two conference titles, with all but three winning three or more.

While at CSU, Hilbert has coached 10 players who have earned AVCA All-America selections, including five in the past five years. On four occasions, a Ram has been named a Volleyball Magazine All-American, and 25 times one of Hilbert's players has been named All-America Honorable Mention by either the AVCA or Volleyball Magazine. Under Hilbert, CSU has also earned 12 MW Player-of-the-Year awards in the league's 16-year history, and a total of 77 all-conference selections.

In addition to 14 total conference coach-of-the-year awards, Hilbert was named the 2013 AVCA Pacific North Region Coach of the Year, his second regional honor during a three-year period and fifth of his career. He was recognized at the NCAA Final Four in Seattle, Wash.

Hilbert has led his teams to 20 or more wins every season since 1992, a span of 24-consecutive seasons, including the final five at Idaho and first 18 at CSU.

Expected to be a rebuilding year after graduating four senior starters, the 2013 Rams rewrote the CSU and Mountain West record books, winning their first 27 matches and finishing the season with a .933 winning percentage -- a program record.

The Rams carried over the momentum to 2014, a year in which CSU went 31-3 and advanced the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2009.

CSU switched to a 6-2 offense for the 2015 season, and did not miss a beat in league play, going 18-0 against Mountain West foes and reaching a peak national ranking of No. 9.

Hilbert has also turned CSU's home court, Moby Arena, into one of the most effective in the nation, compiling a 272-31 (.898) all-time home record. The Rams are 26-14 at Moby against ranked opponents, most recently defeating No. 19 Colorado in the second round of the 2014 NCAA tournament. Hilbert has 43 total wins against ranked teams, including upsetting No. 1 UCLA in 2000.

With big wins come big crowds. The CSU faithful continuously rank in the top 15 nationally for annual attendance figures. The Rams ranked sixth in the NCAA in 2014, drawing 3,231 fans per match, including a school- and conference-record 7,018 vs. Wisconsin on Sept. 6. Between Sept. 18, 1998 and Nov. 18, 2000, CSU rattled off 44-consecutive home wins, a Moby Arena record for any sport. More recently, CSU has strung together streaks of 21 (2007-08 and 2012-13), 20 (2000-02) and 16 (2011-12).

CSU has been ranked in the AVCA top-25 poll more frequently than all but 12 Division I teams, with many of those rankings coming under Hilbert. In fact, Hilbert led CSU to its highest-ever ranking -- No. 3 for five weeks in 2000. On two occasions (2000, 2001), CSU has finished the year ranked in the top 10, and between Sept. 1, 1999 and Sept. 23, 2002, CSU was ranked 51 consecutive weeks. Through the 2015 season, the Rams have been ranked in 45 consecutive polls.

Away from the court, Hilbert's teams have set the tone academically. During his tenure, two players have earned Academic All-America honors - Angela Knopf in 2000 and 2001 and Dana Cranston in 2012. Additionally, the Rams have earned 85 academic all-conference nods under Hilbert's guidance, including 43 over the past five seasons. His team's cumulative GPA continues to be well above 3.0.

Before coming to CSU, Hilbert accumulated a 174-72 (.707) record at Idaho -- which remains the most wins by a coach in Idaho history. He helped the Vandals to the Big West Eastern Division title in 1996, and in the Big Sky, his teams won either the regular season or tournament championship every year from 1992-95. In each of those seasons, Hilbert's Vandals played in the NCAA tournament - posting first-round wins in 1993 and 1994 - and Hilbert was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Moscow, the Vandals went 15-14, a drastic improvement from the program's combined 16-41 mark from the two prior seasons. Just five years later, in 1994, Idaho recorded a program-record 31 victories (31-3). Hilbert coached the Big Sky's first All-American in Mindy Rice. He also guided Idaho to its first national ranking - the first-ever ranking by a Big Sky team. In addition to Rice, Hilbert tutored nine AVCA All-Region selections, four Big Sky MVPs and 20 all-conference recipients.

Prior to Idaho, Hilbert spent five seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma, from 1984-88. The Sooners went 115-56 (.673) in Hilbert's five seasons in Norman, including two trips to the NCAA tournament and an appearance in the 1988 Regional Finals.

Away from the college game, Hilbert has coached several international trips through Bring It Promotions, including winning the Global Challenge in 2009 in Croatia and coaching a USA Select Team in Argentina in 2005.

A native of Norman, Okla., Hilbert earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing in 1984 from Oklahoma. In 1993, he received a master's degree in sports and recreation management from Idaho. Hilbert has resided in Fort Collins since 1997 with his daughter, Myles.

HILBERT'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

What is your coaching philosophy?
My philosophy in volleyball is you need to play low error and as athletic as possible. If you keep your errors down and you maximize your athleticism in all your hitting positions, you're going to beat a lot of teams, and that's what our goal is. I also have a philosophy that every player needs to try and make improvements and grow in all areas every day. Whether it's citizenship, academics or volleyball, that's an important part of what we do.

What is your favorite thing about coaching at CSU?
The support of the program is second to none. If you're a coach of volleyball at CSU, you know you're appreciated, you know the community is into what you're doing, and to me, that's the greatest reward; that's what makes the quality of my job so high. There are a lot of places that have great programs and good financial support, but CSU is a good program with good financial support and has fantastic community support. You really feel appreciated.

What's the biggest selling point when talking to a recruit about Colorado State?
The support that we get here. We're family-first, and we get a lot of support from administration, the university and our fans. You feel wanted, and you feel part of something special because of the support here.

What types of people do you aim to develop your players into?
We want to develop them as citizens and community members. We want these players to learn to be good ambassadors to the university and the program; that is important to me. I want them also to learn to bond with each other and make great friends with this core support group. That will enhance their experience, as well.

What opportunities do players have after competing in Fort Collins?
We've had a lot of student-athletes graduate here before going on to careers overseas. We've had three U.S. National team members and three Canadian National team members, plus countless professional contracts all over the world. What we want to do is prepare our athletes to live their dreams. If their dream is to be a college volleyball player here, we certainly want to give them that experience. Then, after that, if they want to continue to play and expand their game, we want to try and help them do that. We hope that they flourish even past CSU. A lot of players get better from ages 21-25, which is really neat to see.

What is it like to play in Moby Arena?
There's no doubt, it's one of the best venues for volleyball in the United States, hands down. It's a big arena, but it's small and intimate enough that at a volleyball match you feel like there's a lot of people there — and a lot of times at our matches there are! It's the perfect size, it's aesthetically a beautiful place. I really do think it's one of the best places in the country, and it's one of the reasons I love it here so much.

What do you look for in a recruit?
The first thing we look for is if the kid is physical enough to be at or among the best in the Mountain West. Once they pass that test, we start to look for character elements, like are they a good student? A good teammate? Are they going to be someone who's willing to come in and be part of this family and grow every day? If they have all of those characteristics, we want them to be part of this special program.

2012-2015	Oregon State, Assistant Coach

Hiza was named to the 2015 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Thirty Under 30 list, an award created to honor 30 of the up-and-coming volleyball coaches under 30 years old in the sport at all levels of the game. Of the recipients, 11 come from the Division I level. The honor is intended to recognize the sport's up-and-coming coaches.

"She is from Colorado and wants to work for the Rams, which is a real positive for us," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said of Hiza, a Swink, Colorado native. "She's an experienced recruiter in the Pac-12 and she's an experienced collegiate libero, so she perfectly fits our needs. I appreciate her energetic and innovative approach to coaching, and I'm looking forward to what she'll bring to CSU."

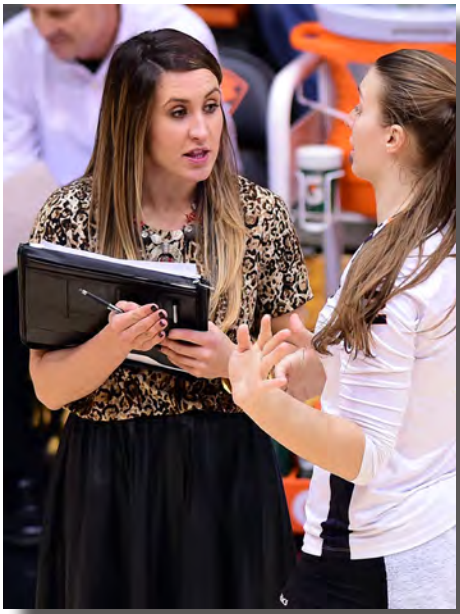
"I couldn't be more excited about this new adventure at Colorado State," Hiza said. "I grew up a Rams fan and my family all attended CSU. Tom has done a tremendous job building a powerhouse program and I can't wait to learn from him while helping the program contend for a national championship."

In 2015, Hiza helped Oregon State's freshman libero Kayla Ellis to an All-Freshman Honorable Mention season in the Pac-12, ranking second among the league's rookies in digs. Libero Darby Reeder set the OSU single-season record for digs in 2014 with 615, placing third in the Pac-12. Hiza also mentored libero Becky Defoe for three of her four seasons at Oregon State (2011-13), which were perhaps the finest defensive seasons in program history. Defoe, who ended her career in 2013, broke the school's record for digs in a career and is one of just 10 players in Pac-12 history with 2,000 or more.

Hiza also was the head coach of the Colorado Junior Volleyball Club for two years, and also served as the head coach of the Boss Volleyball Club in Albany, Oregon.

As a four-year captain at Iowa from 2005-08, Hiza finished second all-time in digs (1,929) and 12th in service aces (97). She also earned Academic All-District honors twice and Big Ten Academic Honors three times. Hiza graduated from Iowa in 2009 with a Bachelor of Business Administration, majoring in finance and marketing, while earning a minor in Spanish.

Hiza was a four-time Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post all-state, all-region, all-district and all-conference selection, leading Swink High School to a Colorado Class 2A state championship in 2001.



LUKE MURRAY

Assistant Coach | Third Season at CSU | Penn State, '08

Luke Murray completed his second season with the Colorado State volleyball coaching staff in 2015. The assistant coach was hired by Head Coach Tom Hilbert on May 20, 2014. Murray works with the team's middle blockers, in addition to being the program's scouting coordinator and handling a large portion of its recruiting.

In season No. 2 with Murray on the sidelines, the Rams went 26-4, including an unblemished 18-0 mark in Mountain West action. CSU rode a 20-match win streak into the NCAA Tournament, and reached a season-best national ranking of No. 9. CSU's middle blocker duo of Acacia Andrews and Alexandra Poletto were dominant, with both players ranking highly nationally in both blocks and hitting percentage.

In his first season on the Rams bench, CSU had a banner season, going 31-3 - the second-best winning percentage (.912) and second-highest win total in program history. The Rams won the Mountain West, were ranked as high as No. 6 nationally and advanced to the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA tournament.

Murray helped mentor five All-Mountain West selections in 2014, including middle blocker Kelsey Snider - who led the team in blocking - and Deedra Foss - who was named the Mountain West Player of the Year and the first AVCA All-America setter in school history.

As a team, CSU ranked high in several statistical categories, including 27th for blocking, averaging 2.67 per set. Additionally, Murray helped CSU to a .280 hitting percentage (seventh in the NCAA), .151 opponent hitting percentage (12th), 13.23 assists per set (17th) and 14.18 kills (18th). CSU was the only team in the country to rank in the top 30 for each category.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Collins, Murray spent two seasons (2012-13) as an assistant at East Tennessee State. With the Buccaneers, he guided the team to a pair of conference titles and a 45-22 overall record. In 2012, ETSU went 23-13 and appeared in the school's first-ever NCAA tournament after running the table during the Atlantic-Sun tournament. A year later, the Buccaneers went 22-9 and won the regular-season title.

Murray worked with the ETSU setters, the position he won a national championship at while playing for Penn State. As ETSU's top assistant, he also served as the team's recruiting coordinator and assisted with scouting and academics.

ETSU setter Jamie Rutledge averaged 10.79 assists per set in 2013 (52nd in NCAA), in addition to earning several community service and leadership awards. Murray also coached Megan Devine, the 2012 Atlantic-Sun Player of the Year and tournament MVP. Devine was also named a 2013 AVCA All-America Honorable Mention. Aside from setting, ETSU's offense was in the top 50 nationally for hitting percentage in 2013, and on defense, the Buccaneers ranked 19th in the NCAA with 2.77 blocks per set.

2014-Present	Colorado State, Assistant Coach

Even with a successful start to his coaching career, Murray is best known for his playing experience. The former setter helped Penn State to a national title in 2008, being named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team. As a senior that year, Murray was also tabbed as an AVCA second-team All-America selection and the AVCA/Sports Imports National Player of the Week on March 27, 2008.

The two-time captain and first-team All-EIVA selection finished his career with 3,191 assists, which ranks seventh all-time in Penn State history. The Nittany Lions advanced to the semifinals or national championship all four years Murray was on the roster (2005-08). He played for head coach Mark Pavlik.

Following his collegiate career, Murray trained with the U.S. National Team in Anaheim, Calif., under Hugh McCutcheon and Alan Knipe (2008-09, spring 2011). From there, Murray played professionally in Cyprus and Puerto Rico (2009-12).

Murray spent three summers as a volleyball clinician with U.S. Elite Volleyball (2011-13), where he co-ran a clinic designed to help coaches implement effective practice methods. Prior to that, he spent two summers (2009-10) as the lead coach for Gold Medal Squared.

Away from the court, Murray has helped his players to plenty of success in the classroom. During the 2012-13 academic year, ETSU held a 3.59 grade-point average, with four student-athletes being placed on the Atlantic-Sun All-Academic Team, and during his first season at CSU seven players earned Mountain West Academic All-Conference honors.

Murray, a native of Washington, Pa., graduated from Penn State in 2008 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. He is married to the former Kendall Grow.

BRI OLMSTEAD

Director of Operations | Ninth Season at CSU | Colorado State, '06

Former Rams standout Bri Olmstead completed her seventh season as a full-time member with the Colorado State staff in 2014, and third as the program's director of operations. She is responsible for all off-the-court duties, including scheduling, travel logistics and the organization of CSU's summer camps. She is the program's first-ever director of operations, a position which was created prior to the 2012 season.

Olmstead, formerly Bri Frech, first joined the Rams as a player in 2003 after spending her freshman and sophomore seasons at Salt Lake City Community College. During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Olmstead was a consistent starter for the Rams, earning All-Mountain West (2004) and MW Championships honors (2003, 2004) while leading CSU to NCAA bids both years and a combined 56-9 record (.862). As a junior, CSU advanced to the NCAA Regional Semifinals, and during Olmstead's senior season, the Rams were ranked as high as No. 9 nationally. Olmstead was a rare six-rotation middle blocker due to her exceptional serving and passing ability.

Today, she still ranks first in CSU volleyball history with 0.41 aces per set, totaling 92 over her two-year career. Her 1.22 career blocks-per-set average ranks sixth, and her .956 reception percentage ranks seventh. In 2003, she recorded 51 service aces, the sixth-most in CSU single-season history. Olmstead holds several of CSU's top individual single-match marks, as well, including a .654 hitting percentage (19-2-26) against Florida A&M on Aug. 30, 2003 (third-best for five-set matches), seven aces vs. New Mexico on Nov. 15, 2003 (tied-second for three-set matches) and 10 block assists on two occasions (tied-second for three-set matches).

Off the court, she was an outstanding student-athlete, something she's been able to carry over as a member of the Rams staff. Olmstead was a two-time Mountain West Academic All-Conference selection, and in 2003-04 became the program's first-ever Mountain West Scholar-Athlete.

In 2005, Olmstead served as a student-assistant for the Rams while completing her degree. She then played professionally in France for MVS La Rochette during the 2006 season. Her club finished second in the French league that year.

Olmstead returned to Fort Collins in 2007 to pursue a career in coaching. She was the team's video and statistics coordinator during the 2007 season, before joining the staff full-time as an assistant coach from 2008-11. As an assistant, her emphasis was on first-contact defense, serving and scouting.

She tutored the school's top libero, Katelin Batten, who holds the CSU record for career digs. On the serving end, CSU set a program record for serve percentage in 2011, effectively serving at a 92.4 percent rate. The statistic began being tracked in 2001, and from 2009 to 2011, all under Olmstead, CSU had its top three percentages at the time.

From 2008-11, CSU won three conference titles and advanced as far as the 2009 NCAA Round of 16. CSU's overall record with Olmstead on the bench as an assistant coach was 98-24 (.803), including at least one NCAA tournament victory each year. Of Olmstead's 11 seasons with CSU, in any capacity, the Rams have won nine regular-season conference titles, in addition to three conference tournament championships in four tries. CSU has played in the NCAA tournament all 11 seasons with Olmstead.

A native of Eschwege, Germany, she received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from CSU in 2005. She is married to Charlie Olmstead and the couple has two daughters - Lilly, 3, and newborn Alexandra James.

Olmstead was a standout player at CSU from 2003-04.

HILBERT ON HOUGAARD: "She's a very experienced player and she's played high-level matches against good players. She's in a league where there are Division I players from the Big Ten and all over the place. The level that we are playing at will not scare her."

HILBERT ON NICHOLSON: "She can ball-handle, she can pass, she can defend and she has great vision of the game. She's the kind of athlete that I kind of liken to Angela Knopf. She's so aware of what's going on around her, and she's developed into a nice physical player, too."

KATIE OLEKSAK

FR • Setter • 5-10
Phoenix, Ariz. (Sunnyslope)

HIGH SCHOOL: Was a Third Team Under Armour All-America selection... She also starred for her club team, the Arizona Storm, who were Colorado Crossroads 18's Open Champions, Southern California 18's Open Champions, Salt Lake Tournament of Champions 18's Open Champions in 2016... Led the Storm to multiple national championships... HILBERT ON OLEKSAK: "Katie Oleksak is a leader. She is a very talented setter. She is very active and mobile and athletic. Her club team is laced with top volleyball talent going to places like USC and Arizona and Nebraska, so she's played volleyball with great players for a long time and she understands how to create things through tempo and deception. In my opinion, she is ready to go as a player, as much as anyone has been. I look across the country and I see a lot of great setters, and Katie is right there with them. So because of the success of her team and what she's done to help them win, that's why I feel she's the top setting prospect in the country."

BREANA RUNNELS

FR • Outside Hitter • 5-10
Bakersfield, Calif. (Independence)

HIGH SCHOOL: Was named Independence High School's team MVP in 2014 and top offensive player in 2013... Team captain in 2014 and 2015... Earned AVCA National Player of the Week recognition in 2013... two-time first team all-area honoree... Led her squad to a pair of South Yosemite League championships and was named league MVP.

HILBERT ON RUNNELS: "Breana has a fantastic arm swing and she does jump well. She's not a big tall outside hitter, in fact we are getting a little bit smaller with this class. She gets up in the air high enough. Two things she's going to have to learn to do, and hopefully she learns this year, is serve-receive a little better and attack the ball at a higher trajectory. She has a very impressive arm and hits extremely hard. She also has a really nice, calm demeanor as she plays. She's kind of a sleeper in this class and I think she is going to be a contributor pretty early in her career."

HILBERT ON YOUNG: "She's a dedicated young athlete and she has had her eye on us for a long time. She's talented and she's athletic and she's a fast defensive specialist. I've watched her and I've been impressed by her speed and her ability to move, as well as her focus and alertness. She's going to end being really good for us, and she actually reminds me of Jaime Colaizzi.

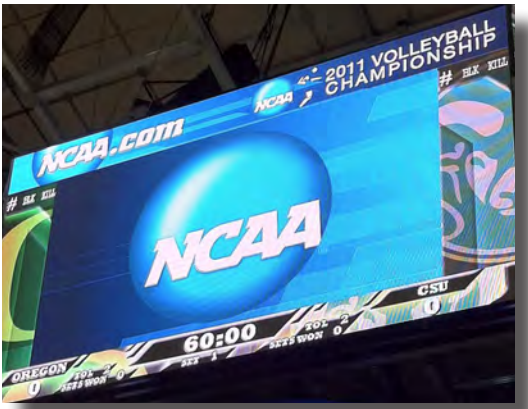
A WINNING TRADITION

TOURNAMENT STREAKING

Postseason play year in and year out is an expectation at CSU. In fact, one would have to look back to 1994 to find the last time the Rams were not in the NCAA tournament. In all, CSU has been to 27 of the 35 all-time tournaments, including 21 in a row.

Just 12 Division I teams have earned more tournament berths than CSU, and the Rams' stretch of 21 consecutive appearances is the seventh-longest active streak in the country.



Not only does CSU get to the tournament on an annual basis, but the team wins when it gets there. The Rams have been to the regional semifinals (Sweet 16) on 10 occasions — most recently in 2014 — and won their opening-round match five consecutive seasons from 2007-11.

Over the years, Moby Arena has been a host site for NCAA tournament matches 12 times, including the 2008 Regional Finals. The Rams have had tremendous success on their home court, going 15-2 in tournament matches at Moby Arena.

CHAMPIONS ON THE COURT

Since the Mountain West's inception in 1999, the Rams have been stalwarts in the league, winning 13 of the 17 regular-season titles. Additionally, CSU has earned five Mountain West Championships crowns in nine seasons (the tournament ran from 1999-06 and again in 2011). The 18 total championships is more than all other Mountain West schools combined — past and present.

CSU finished at the top of the regular-season standings again in 2015, earning its seventh consecutive title with an unblemished 18-0 league mark. CSU is the only school in the nation to have won its conference title each of the past seven seasons.

In 2016, CSU will vie for its eighth consecutive championship, a feat that has never been accomplished before. The Rams also won five straight regular-season titles from 2000-04. For those who have played four seasons under Head Coach Tom Hilbert, each has won at least two conference titles, with all but three players winning at least three. Marlee Reynolds, Deedra Foss and Kelsey Snider finished their careers at CSU in 2014 with five titles to their credit, while Jaime Colaizzi and Adrianna Culbert finished with four each from 2012-15.

In 16 years with the MW, CSU has won or shared the regular-season or tournament championship in all but two seasons. The program also boasts titles from both the Western Athletic Conference (1998 Mountain Division) and the High County Athletic Conference (1984, '85), totaling 20 overall conference championships, more than any other sport at CSU.

The Rams have earned respect nationwide as one of the most consistent and successful programs in NCAA history. In fact, CSU has been ranked in 280 of the AVCA's all-time top-25 polls. Only 13 teams, entering 2016, have been ranked more frequently than the Rams. What's more, CSU has been ranked in the final AVCA poll 18 of 34 seasons, including seven of the last eight since 2008, which ranks 15th.

CSU's highest-ever ranking was No. 3, in September and October 2000, shortly after the Rams took down No. 1 UCLA. CSU's best overall finish to a season was No. 6 in 1987. The Rams have been ranked in the top 10 a total of 75 weeks, 18th-most in the NCAA.

They have finished the season ranked in the top 10 four times (1984, 1987, 2000 and 2001), and are one of just 25 teams to ever be ranked in the top three.

Colorado State has a history of not only developing outstanding players in Fort Collins, but for many, that extends to a professional career in volleyball. Three members of the 2012 senior class went on to play professionally.

"We've helped give these players the opportunity to further their careers on a professional stage, which is really fun for me," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "It's a big part of their lives and a time they'll cherish, and for some people, like Soraya, it's their career and their life. I'm proud that we've had so many players play professionally, and I think that speaks to the development we provide at Colorado State. I even like to get over there and share it with them when I can."

WELCOME! The Colorado State athletic media relations office genuinely appreciates your coverage of CSU volleyball, and looks forward to each and every time it can welcome you to Fort Collins. Members of the office, including volleyball contact Zach Balside, director Paul Kirk, assistant directors Nic Hallisey and Danny Mattie, as well as the team of student-assistants, are available to assist with your coverage. The office is happy to help you however it can. We encourage you to familiarize yourself with the policies relevant to your coverage of the volleyball program, as outlined on this page and the next.

Please feel free to contact Zach Balside via phone or email with questions regarding the media policy.

GENERAL POLICIES

- All interviews with any member of the volleyball program, including Head Coach Tom Hilbert, the coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through Zach Balside in the athletic media relations office.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from approaching any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means – including text messages, email, phone calls (cell, office or home) or social media, such as Facebook and Twitter – without first approaching the athletic media relations office.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program.

INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

- Interviews, either in person or via telephone, with members of Colorado State's volleyball coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through assistant director of media relations Zach Balside.
- Media are asked not to request an individual's personal contact information, including email and cell number, but rather to contact Zach Balside.
- Student-athletes and coaches are available for interviews at the conclusion of daily practice sessions. Student-athlete interviews will not conflict with classes, meetings, medical treatment or practice times.
- Interviews are not permitted in the locker room or training room. Interviews will not be granted on match days until following the contest.
- Telephone interviews should be requested at least 24 hours in advance and coordinated through Zach Balside. All interviews will be processed on an availability basis involving the requested interviewee.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

- Single-match credentials must be requested through Zach Balside in writing at least three days in advance of a match. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the media relations office or at the match. On days of matches, credentials can be obtained just outside the west side of the Moby

Arena court. Media members are asked to enter through the McGraw Athletic Center doors (just east of the Moby Arena parking lot) and follow the ramp on the right down to the court. At the bottom of the ramp, a table will be set up with credentials.

PARKING

- Media parking is available at Moby Arena. Please contact the CSU media relations office to request a Moby Arena parking pass.
- Access to the parking lot will require an "A" permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays during the academic year. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the media relations office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management website: www.colostate.edu/depts/parking.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES

- All Colorado State volleyball practices are open to the media and public, unless otherwise noted.
- During the season, practice will generally run from 12:30-3 p.m. during the week, except on match and travel days. Please note, practice times are subject to change on short or no notice. At times, practice will end early, so please plan to arrive early. Practice will usually take place in Moby Arena, but contact Zach Balside for the most updated schedule.
- All interviews must take place after the conclusion of practice. If this is an issue, contact Zach Balside, and the media relations staff will try and accommodate your schedule.
- Media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Members of the general public attending practice are asked to sit in Moby Arena upper seating.

GAMEDAY

- Near the end of each home match, the media relations staff will ask those on hand representing the media whom they wish to speak with. Approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of each match, Head Coach Tom Hilbert and the selected student-athletes will be brought to the Coors Auditorium, located in the McGraw Athletic Center, and will be available for questions.
- No student-athlete or coach can appear on a live postgame television or radio interview without permission obtained prior to the match from Zach Balside.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

- In-game services include live online statistics and box scores following each set. Notes, transcribed quotes and statistics will be available following the conclusion of the match.
- The media room, which is located just west of the court at the bottom of the ramp connecting Moby Arena and the McGraw Athletic Center, will be open at least two hours prior to the start of a match, and will provide updated notes on both teams, statistics and other information.
- Moby Arena offers complimentary wireless Internet access. Check the media room for access information.

ROAD MATCHES

- We appreciate your coverage, and if you would like to cover the Rams in person during a road match, please notify Zach Balside at least seven days in advance to provide ample time to request a credential from the opposing team.
- If you would like to talk to Head Coach Tom Hilbert after the conclusion of a road match via telephone, please notify Zach Balside prior to the start of the match. After the match, a member of the media relations staff will call you so you can talk with Coach Hilbert. Student-athletes will try to be made available, as well, if requested.

REPORTING OF INJURIES

- At all times throughout the year, Head Coach Tom Hilbert will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Hilbert, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete or her teammates.

CSURAMS.COM

- The official website of Colorado State athletics is www.CSURams.com, featuring the latest news, information, statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs.

VOLLEYBALL EMAIL LIST

- To receive email updates on the Rams, email assistant director of media relations Zach Balside at zach.balside@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to be added to the distribution list.

WEEKLY RELEASES

- Weekly news releases are available 48 hours prior to the first match of each week on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also will be emailed to media outlets upon request.
